However, the meeting of shareholders or the meeting of board of directors may fix and amend the name list of the directors whom are authorised to sign and affix the company seal in order to bind the Company.

Clause 20. The board of directors shall elect one of the directors to be the chairman of the board.

In the case where the board of director deems appropriate, the board may elect one or several directors to be vice-chairman, the vice-chairman shall have duties as stipulated in this Articles of Association in the businesses entrusted by the chairman of the board.

Clause 21. At a meeting of the board of directors, which may be conducted via electronic means as prescribed by the law governing electronic meetings, whether they are participating physically or electronically, the attendance of not less than one-half of the total number of directors is required to constitute a quorum, and chairman of the board shall preside over the meeting of the board of directors. In the case where the chairman of the board is not present at the meeting or is unable to perform his/her duty, and if there is a vice-chairman, the vice-chairman presents at the meeting shall preside over the meeting instead. If there is no vice-chairman or if there is a vice-chairman who is unable to perform his/her duty, the directors attending at the meeting shall elect one among themselves to preside over the meeting.

The decision at the meeting of the board of directors shall be made by a majority of the votes of the directors who attend the meeting.

Each director has one vote, but a director who has interests in any matter shall not be entitled to vote on such a matter. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have an additional vote as a casting vote.

Clause 22. In calling a meeting of the board of directors, the chairman of the board or the person entrusted by the chairman of the board shall serve a written notice calling for such a meeting to the directors not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting. Unless it is necessary or urgent to preserve the rights or benefits of the Company, the meeting may be called by electronic means or any other means, and an earlier meeting date may be chosen.

In calling a meeting of the board of directors in accordance with the first paragraph, in the absence of the chairman of the board or the person assigned by the chairman of the board for whatever reason, the vice-chairman of the board shall be the person who summons a meeting of the board of directors. In the absence of the vice-chairman of the board for whatever reason, at least two (2) directors may jointly summon a meeting of the board of directors.

When there is reasonable cause or in order to preserve the rights or benefits of the Company, at least two (2) directors may jointly request that the chairman of the board of directors or the person assigned by the chairman of the board summon a meeting of the board of directors, whereby the agenda and reason(s) therefore that will be proposed for consideration must be specified. In such a case, the chairman of the board or the person assigned by the chairman of the board shall summon and fix the date of the meeting within fourteen (14) days of the date of receipt of the request.

In the case where the chairman of the board of directors or the person assigned by the chairman of the board does not take action in accordance with the third paragraph, the requesting directors may jointly summon and fix the date of the meeting of the board of directors to consider the proposed agenda items within fourteen (14) days of the end of the period stipulated in the third paragraph.

(Mrs. Suphajee Suthumpun)

Clause 23. A director shall perform his/her duty in accordance with the laws, objectives and Articles of Association of the Company as well as the resolution of the meeting of the board of directors and the resolution of the meeting of shareholders.

Clause 24. The director shall be entitled to receive remuneration in the form of a pay, premium, reward, bonus or any other kind of remuneration in accordance with the Articles of Association or consideration and resolution of the meeting of shareholders based on a vote of not less than two-thirds of the total number of votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and have the right to vote, which may fix a certain amount or stipulate the rule, and may fix for each meeting or fix for an unlimited period until being changed, and in addition, the directors shall also receive allowance and welfare according to the Company's regulation.

Provision states in the first paragraph shall not affect the right, to receive remuneration and benefits as a staff or employee of the Company as well, of the Company's staff or employee who is elected as a director.

Clause 25. The director shall not operate any business, become a partner or become a director in the other juristic person operating business which has the same nature as and is in competition with the business of the Company, unless he/she notifies the meeting of shareholders before the resolution appointing him/her was passed.

Clause 26. A director shall notify the Company without delay if he/she has interest in any contracts that the Company made during the accounting year, or holds shares or debentures of the Company or of its affiliated company.

Clause 27. The board of directors shall hold at least one (1) meeting every three (3) months at the locality where the Company's head office is located, in a nearby province, or in any other place in the Kingdom, and the electronic meeting shall have the same legal effect as a physical meeting in accordance with the methods prescribed by law and in these Articles of Association.

A meeting of the board of directors mentioned in the first paragraph may be held via electronic means in accordance with the provisions prescribed by the law governing electronic meetings. In this case, it shall be deemed that the Company's head office is the venue of the meeting.

In the case where there are vacancies on the board of directors, resulting in the number of directors being less than the number required for a quorum, the remaining directors shall perform any act in the name of the board of directors only in matters relating to the calling of a meeting of shareholders to elect directors to fill all the vacancies. Such meeting shall be held within one (1) month as from the date the number of directors falls below the number required for a quorum. Such substitute directors shall hold office only for the remaining terms of office of the directors whom they replace.

Chapter 5. Meeting of Shareholders

Clause 28. The board of directors shall arrange for a meeting of shareholders, which is an Annual General Meeting of shareholders, to be held within four (4) months after the end of the Company's accounting year.

Any other shareholders' meeting other than the one specified in the first paragraph shall be called an "Extraordinary General Meeting". The board of directors may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever it is appropriate.

A meeting of shareholders may be conducted via electronic means in accordance with the methods prescribed by the law governing electronic meetings.

One or more shareholders holding shares in aggregate of no less than ten (10) percent of the total shares issued may request in writing to the board of directors to call an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders at any time, but they shall clearly specify the agenda items or reasons for such a request in the notice. In such a case, the board of directors must hold a meeting of shareholders within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt of the notice.

In the case that the Board of Directors does not hold such meeting within the period specified in the fourth paragraph, the shareholders who have submitted the request or other shareholders holding the aggregate number of shares as stipulated in this Article may hold the meeting themselves within forty-five (45) days from the lapse of the period specified in the fourth paragraph. In this case, it shall be deemed that such shareholder meeting is the meeting called by the Board of Directors. The Company shall be responsible for all necessary expenses incurred from the holding of the meeting and reasonable facilitation.

In the case that the quorum of the meeting convened as requested by the shareholders according to the fifth paragraph cannot be formed as prescribed in Clause 30, the shareholders according to the fifth paragraph shall be jointly responsible for any expenses incurred from the convening of such meeting.

Clause 29. In calling a meeting of shareholders, the board of directors shall prepare a written notice indicating the venue, date, time, agenda, and matters to be proposed to the meeting, together with sufficient detail and in accordance with the ruling published and stipulated by the Capital Market Supervisory Board, clearly indicating whether it is the matter proposed for acknowledgement, approval, or consideration, including the opinions of the board of directors on the said matters, and shall be delivered to the shareholders and the Registrar for their information not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting, and shall be published in a newspaper or advertised via electronic means in accordance with the criteria prescribed by law for three (3) consecutive days, which must not be less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting.

The venue of the meeting may be in the locality where the Company's head office is located, in a nearby province, or in any other place as the board of directors may determine. In the event that the meeting of shareholders is conducted via electronic means, the Company's head office shall be deemed the venue of the meeting, and the electronic meeting shall have the same legal effect as a physical meeting in accordance with the methods prescribed by law and in these Articles of Association.

The chairman of the board shall preside over the meeting of shareholders. In the case where the chairman of the board is not present at a meeting or is unable to perform his/her duty, if there is a vice-chairman, the vice-chairman shall preside over the meeting. If there is no vice-chairman or there is a vice-chairman, but such vice-chairman is unable to perform his/her duty, the shareholders attending the meeting shall elect one shareholder who attends the meeting to preside over the meeting.

Clause 30. In a meeting of shareholders, whether they are participating physically or electronically, there shall be shareholders and proxies (if any) attending the meeting, amounting to not less than twenty-five (25) persons or not less than one-half of the total number of shareholders, and in either case, such shareholders shall hold shares amounting to not less than one-third of the total shares issued to constitute a quorum, unless otherwise specified by law, and the shareholders may appoint proxies by electronic means in accordance with the criteria prescribed by law.

At any meeting of shareholders, in the case where one (1) hour has reached and passed since the time for which the meeting is scheduled and the number of shareholders attending the meeting is still inadequate to form a quorum as stipulated in the first paragraph, if such meeting of shareholders was called upon the shareholder's request, such meeting shall be cancelled, if it was not called upon the request of the shareholders, the meeting shall be called once again, and the notice to call such meeting shall be delivered to the shareholders not less than seven days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice of the meeting may be sent to the shareholders via electronic methods, provided that such shareholders have declared their intention or given their consent. In the subsequent meeting, a quorum is not required.

Clause 31. When casting the vote, one (1) share shall have one (1) vote.

A resolution of the meeting of shareholders shall be made by the following votes:

Signature.....-signed-.....Director
(Mrs. Suphaje Suthumpun)

- (1) In an ordinary event, the majority vote of the shareholders who attend the meeting and cast their votes. In case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have an additional vote as a casting vote;
- (2) In the following cases, a vote of not less than three-fourths of the total number of votes of shareholders who attend the meeting and have the right to vote:
  - (a) The sale or transfer of the whole or important parts of the business of the Company to other persons;
  - (b) The purchase or acceptance of transfer of the business of other companies or private companies by the Company;
  - (c) The making, amending or terminating of contracts with respect to the granting of a hire of the whole or an important part of the Company’s business. The entrustment of the management of the business of the Company to any other persons or the amalgamation of the business with other persons with the purpose of profit and loss sharing.
  - (d) Amending the Memorandum of Association or Articles of Association.
  - (e) Increase or reduction of the Company’s capital or issuance of debentures.
  - (f) Amalgamation or dissolution of the Company.

Clause 32. The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held to consider the following agenda:

- (1) To consider the director’s report in which shows performance of the Company during the previous year;
- (2) To consider and approve the balance sheet and profit and loss account of the previous accounting year;
- (3) To allocate the profit and reserve fund;
- (4) To appoint director(s) to replace the director who vacates his/her office due to the expiration of the term of office and fix remuneration;
- (5) To appoint an auditor;
- (6) Other matters (if any).

Chapter 6. Accounting, Finance and Audit of Account

Clause 33. The accounting year of the Company shall commence on 1st January and end on 31st December of every year.

Clause 34. The Company shall prepare and maintain accounts including the auditing of accounts under the laws on such matter and shall prepare a balance sheet and a profit and loss account at least once during each twelve-month period which is the accounting year of the Company.

In the case where the Company has not yet received full payments on shares up to the amount of the registered capital, it shall clearly indicate the amount of the registered capital and number of the registered shares, number of the shares sold and the paid-up amount in the balance sheet and other documents which present its financial condition.

Clause 35. The board of directors shall prepare the balance sheet and the profit and loss account as of the last day of the accounting year of the Company for submission to the meeting of shareholders for approval at the Annual General Meeting. The board of directors shall have the said balance sheet and the profit and loss account examined by an auditor prior to submission to the meeting of shareholders.

Clause 36. The board of directors shall deliver the following documents to the shareholders along with written notices calling for the Annual General Meeting:

Signature.....-signed-.....Director
(Mrs. Suphajee Suthumpun)

- (1) Copies of the balance sheet and the profit and loss account which have been examined by the auditor together with the audit report of the auditor;
- (2) The annual report of the board of directors.

Clause 37. Dividends shall not be paid out of other kinds of money rather than profits. In cases where the Company still has an accumulated loss, no dividends shall be paid.

Dividends shall be distributed according to the number of shares, and each share shall receive an equal amount.

Dividend payment shall be approved by the meeting of shareholders.

The board of directors may, from time to time, pay interim dividends to the shareholders if the board estimates that the profits of the Company justify such a payment. After the dividends have been paid, such dividend payment shall be reported to the shareholders at the next meeting of shareholders.

Payment of dividends shall be made within one (1) month as from the date of the resolution of the meeting of shareholders or the meeting of the board of directors, as the case may be, and the shareholders shall be notified in writing of such payment of dividend, and the notice shall be advertised in accordance with the criteria and procedures prescribed or permitted by law.

Clause 38. The Company shall allocate not less than five (5) percent of its annual net profit less the accumulated losses brought forward (if any) to a reserve fund until this fund attains an amount not less than ten (10) percent of the registered capital.

Clause 39. The auditor shall not be a director, staff, employee or hold any position in the Company.

Clause 40. The auditor shall have the right to examine the account, documents, or any other evidence relating to income, expense as well as assets and debts of the Company during the Company's business hours. In such regard, the auditor shall also have the right to inquire directors, staffs, employees, or any other persons who hold any positions in the Company and the Company's representative, including requesting those persons to clarify the fact or give any documents or evidence relating to the business of the Company.

Clause 41. The auditor has the duty to attend every meeting of shareholders at which the balance sheet, the profit and loss account and the problems relating to the accounts of the Company are to be considered in order to explain to the shareholders the auditing of accounts. In this regard, the Company shall also deliver to the auditor the reports and documents of the Company that are to be received by the shareholders at that meeting of shareholders.

Chapter 7. Increase and Reductions of Capital

Clause 42. The Company may increase the amount of its registered capital by issuing new shares. Such increase of capital shall be made by the meeting of shareholders passing a resolution not less than three-fourths of the total votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and have the right to vote.

The new shares issued because of the increase of the capital may be offered for sale in whole or in part and may be either first offered for sale to the shareholders in proportion to the number of shares already held by each of them or may be offered for sale to the public or other persons in whole or in part in accordance with the resolution of the meeting of shareholders.

Clause 43. The Company may reduce the amount of its capital by either lowering the par value of each share or by reducing the number of shares. However, the capital of the Company shall not be reduced to less than one-fourth of its total capital amount. Such reduction of the registered capital shall be made upon a resolution of the meeting of shareholders passed by a vote of not less than three-fourths of the total number of votes of the shareholders attending the meeting and having the right to vote.
